The volunteer program of the Pembroke Public Library creates opportunities for community members to actively contribute to the Library's vision of excellence in Library service. The volunteer policies provide guidance and direction to management, staff, and volunteers.

Scope:

1. Volunteers are used by the Library to enrich and enhance Library programs and services, or to free skilled paid Library staff for other duties. Volunteers do not substitute for or replace paid employees.
2. The policies apply to all volunteers in all programs, including activities that take place outside the Library.
3. The Library will ensure that liability insurance covers volunteers.

Responsibility:

1. The Chief Executive Officer or Volunteer Program Coordinator oversees and coordinates the volunteer program by:
 - a. planning for effective volunteer utilization
 - b. assisting staff in identifying productive and meaningful volunteer assignments
 - c. recruiting suitable volunteers
 - d. training staff to supervise volunteers effectively

Eligibility for Volunteering:

1. The term "volunteer" refers to a person who performs services for the Library without compensation or expectation of compensation (beyond reimbursement for pre-approved specified expenses) and, who performs a task at the direction of, and on behalf of, the Library.
2. The Library also accepts community members as volunteers who are participating in student projects, corporate volunteer programs, and other volunteer referral programs.
3. The service of paid staff members as volunteers is accepted provided that the volunteer service is:
 - a. initiated by the staff member
 - b. provided voluntarily

4. Family members of paid staff are allowed to volunteer with the Library but will not be placed under the direct supervision of their family members who are employees.
5. The minimum age requirement for volunteers is 16, unless exemption is made by CEO.

The Library accepts the service of any volunteer with the understanding that such service does not constitute an obstruction to or conflict with the provision of Library services to users. A volunteer must be officially accepted and enrolled by the Library prior to performance of the task. Volunteers agree that the Library may at any time decide to terminate the volunteer's relationship with the Library, or to make changes in the nature of the volunteer assignment.
